

CAROL MALONEY-SCOTT

Carol Maloney-Scott is the founder and CEO of Career Happiness Map Coaching, a practice dedicated to helping professional women who feel stuck in the wrong career create a path to a happier and more fulfilling work life.

Carol is also the author of the Smart Chick's Guide to Career Happiness, a system for discovering your career passions and manifesting them into reality, and 8 fiction books under her Fun Feminine Fiction imprint.

She holds an MS degree in Career Development, has over 20 years of experience in corporate and agency talent acquisition recruiting, training and coaching, and is a Certified Career Coach (CCC) with the Career Coach Institute (CCI).

When not inspiring women to achieve their career happiness, she lives happily ever after in Richmond, VA with her husband and miniature dachshunds, known affectionately as the Wiener Wonder Twins.

Testimonials:

*"Carol gave a wonderful presentation for the members of the River City Express Network, a Richmond, VA chapter of the American Business Women's Association (ABWA). Her topic on career happiness resonated with the group and her presentation skills were engaging. She gave practical tips to the group in an entertaining and witty manner. I would recommend Carol as a speaker!" - Lee Ann Pond, Engaging Leadership

*Carol gave an inspirational and informative workshop to job seekers at the Jobs Assistance Ministry (JAM) at St. Michael Catholic Church. She gave participants valuable insights and information to interview effectively. Participants clearly enjoyed her engaging presentation and benefitted from her insights. The feedback was enthusiastic and appreciative. We can't wait for her to return! Ed Landry – JAM Founder and Leader

The Smart Chick's Guide to Career Happiness

Why do so many people fail to find their ideal work, and spend years mired in a career rut, with no idea how to pull themselves out and start loving every day of their lives, not just the weekends?

If you want to conquer this career confusion and attract the work you were meant to do, The Smart Chick's Guide to Career Happiness will lead the way.

In this fun and actionable guide, Carol will lead you through her 6 Tickets to Career Discovery: Courage, Clues, Clarity, Community, Compass, and Confidence.

Your career is a HUGE part of your LIFE! Therefore, it isn't just about finding a new job – it's about crafting the life YOU want to live through the lifelong pursuit of meaningful work, adventure and FUN!

Presentation Topics:

“Discover Your Career Happiness”

Discover Your Career Happiness seeks to help mid-career professional women who feel stuck in the wrong career to create a path to their ideal work. I believe that work CAN and SHOULD be fun, and through a combination of introspective and actionable exercises, anyone can turn the car around and design a new and exciting map to a happy career. It's never too late, and the best time to start is now!

Three learning objectives:

1. Understand the reasons professional women become stuck in the wrong career, and how they can break free from unfulfilling work.
2. Learn how to use journaling prompts to explore the 4 C's of the Career Happiness Discovery process – Clues, Courage, Clarity and Community.
3. Walk away with at least one actionable step to begin their own career happiness exploration.

“The Recruiter’s Guide to Successful Interviewing”

Leveraging 20 years of “in the trenches” recruiting experience, Carol shares her Top 10 Tips for Successful interviewing, including: Do Your Homework, It's an Interview, Not a Friendly Chat, and Attitude is (Almost) Everything.

Through humorous and candid anecdotes and actionable job search advice, Carol guides job seekers to present their best selves in interviews and land their dream job offers. She believes that work CAN and SHOULD be fun, and that everyone can learn the skills needed to ace the interview process!

“Apply for the Right Jobs”

As a recruiter, Carol saw time and time again how desperate and confused job seekers became known as “serial appliers” and wasted opportunities to forge meaningful relationships with the recruiters that could help them find the “right job” for their unique skills and experience.

In this presentation Carol teaches participants how to:

1. Determine the ideal targets for their one-of-a-kind career.
2. Stop wasting time and energy applying for WAY too many jobs.
3. Understand job postings and what companies are REALLY seeking.
